President’s Message

Dear Friendship Force Members,

Thank you to the many members and friends who participated in club activities in 2015. We hope you continue your participation in 2016 because we have an exciting year ahead of us.

Thank you, also, if you have paid your membership dues for the year. Starting this year, a member directory will no longer be printed except for those few members who do not have an email address. Most members will receive the directory as an email attachment that can be printed or saved on your personal computer. Look for that email in mid-January.

We enter 2016 with two board vacancies; if you want more information about how you can join the Board and what that entails, please let me know.

In friendship,

Shelley Bain

FFGDM President

Regional Conference

Building Bridges

Midwest – Great Lakes Regional Conference

April 28 – May 1, 2016

Final details and registration will be sent to FFGDM members via email as soon as they are available.

The Friendship Force of Quad Cities club is looking forward to hosting you at the Midwest-Great Lakes Regional Conference next year, April 28 - May 1, 2016. This conference is in a great place - Davenport, Iowa.

Our Midwest Regional Representative, Adrienne Moen, is hard at work planning conference workshops and presentations; and yes, you are encouraged to communicate to her the topics of concern to you and your club (adriennemoen@gmail.com). She also would like to hear your success stories.

FFQC is also busy planning optional activities unique to our location, like a paddle boat cruise on the mighty Mississippi River! Did you know that the Mississippi River valley is one of the major flyways for migrating birds? Imagine seeing white pelicans gleaming in the sunlight with black tipped wings, or watching a bald eagle soaring overhead. We have great bicycle trails along the river, too.

Check out the conference hotel venue! The brand-new Holiday Inn and Suites is the Quad Cities' newest upscale full service hotel with easy interstate I-80 access. On-site is the Quad Cities' newest hot spot, The Jbar, featuring award winning craft cocktails and martinis, locally brewed craft beers and wines by the glass. The hotel is bursting with amenities sure to have your experience relaxing and comfortable. A sparkling indoor heated pool, relaxing whirlpool spa, fitness center, complimentary high-speed wireless Internet access, and a Business Center with complimentary faxing, printing, and copying. It's conveniently located near Davenport's newest shopping complex, Elmore Marketplace.

This is an important conference, providing your club opportunities to learn how to shape the future of Friendship Force, to share your knowledge with others, and make or renew friendships with other attendees. This is for you!

Linda Shearer
FFQC Communications Committee Chair
d23shearer@aol.com

FFGDM Members,

Our club goal is for 8 members to attend this conference. Not only is it an easy drive to the Quad-Cities, it is a great opportunity to make new or renew friendships, learn new skills and use those skills to help build our club. We'll need a member to coordinate carpooling to the conference so if you plan to attend, please think about volunteering when you receive the registration email.

“Be not inhospitable to strangers, lest they be angels in disguise.”

It's a Match!

We are looking forward to finding out what our club's international match is for 2017 and whether it will be a co-operative exchange, as the Isle of Wight exchange is this year. The plan is for Kristin Harrison, FFI Exchange Matching and Programming Manager, to contact all FF clubs on or around January 15 so we hope to know by the LEO on January 16.

Our club is still looking for a domestic outbound exchange for the fall of 2016 or sometime in 2017. Domestic exchanges are arranged by the clubs, not FFI, and can be a challenge to arrange. Stay tuned for developments on both fronts.

VOLUNTEERS
don't necessarily have the time;
they just have the heart!
